

Dear Adopted Consultant,

Welcome to the Chris Kurzawa Miracle Makers unit as part of the Adorables Team!!!

Once a month, before meeting, please give Jen a sales ticket, listing all the prizes you have been given from me. Ribbons, new consultant pins, fun and exciting prizes, and events that you can earn. With this ticket, please include a stamped envelope addressed to your director.

Please complete the Adoptee Registration Form and give to Jen at the registration table. This will ensure that you will be added to our email tree. Jen manages all the group emails to and from adoptees for me. As an adopted consultant herself, Jen understands the importance of communication to you.

Every week, I like to recognize accomplishments of the individual consultants in my unit. In order to facilitate this for my adorable adoptees, I have the "Kurzawa Unit Adorables" form you can fill out each week and place in the basket Jen has designated for this. She will then see that I get them so I can recognize you.

On the form, Achievements are anything you did to move your business forward in the previous week (Sunday through Saturday). That can be going out of your comfort zone to warm chatter, picking up the phone, doing faces, sharing appointments, to name a few.

Prizes is for prizes your director sends or gives you. You are welcome to bring them in and I will present them to you, as she would if you were able to attend her meetings. You have earned the right to be recognized for your accomplishments! Please include what you did to earn them, on the form.

As part of my Adorables Team, you are welcome to access my website. It is:
www.chriskurzawa.com The password to the Resource Center is: miracle

I look forward to getting to know you, and watching you and your business flourish!! I am blessed to have you attend our Tuesday night Success Meetings!
