Four Point Recruiting Plan...

Skin care classes and collection previews offer the best place to find prospective team members. Mary Kay herself developed the Four-Point Recruiting Plan when she first started holding skin care classes. Since then, it has been used successfully by thousands of Consultants and Directors.

- 1 Before every skin care class and collection preview, ask the hostess; Who is coming today who might be interested in doing what I do?
- 2 Present your heartfelt, enthusiastic I-story at every skin care class and collection preview. Share why you began your Mary Kay business and what it means to you.
- 3 Select at least one person at every skin care class and collection preview and offer her the Mary Kay opportunity. You may want to plant seeds by sending guests home with team building materials.
- 4 Offer the hostess a special gift for any person she suggests who becomes an Independent Beauty Consultant.

Booking Blitz

Get over the "Booking Block" that an evening party is the only kind! Here are a few suggestions to help you break out of the old mold and into a Booking Blitz:

Office Lunch Brunch Makeovers...Book a simple lunchtime refresher in the break room for 3-5 guests.

After Work Pick-Me-Up...Schedule a party for 5:30pm or as soon as everyone gets home from a long day of work. Who couldn't use a little after work pick-me-up!

Mom's Day Out...Find a local park and take some warm washcloths in an insulated bag. Hire a sitter to watch the kids for some extra facial-focus time!

Activity Club Booster...Book a pampering session for special interest groups such as Scrapbooking. Take pictures of the event and then come back later to scrapbook those pictures!
